last night that he is rapidly recovering from the injury.

The Brooklys Dodgers will have a new manager next season, and it is generally believed that Jake Daubert, the crack first baseman, is the man who'll obtain the position. Bill Dahlen has been leader of the club for several years, but the opposition to him is so strong in Brooklyn that it would almost be suicidal, as far at the finalness of the club are concerned, to reappoint him. The McKeever brothers, who are large stockholders in the club, are strongty opposed to Dahlen's writtention, and it is understood that they will demonstrate stifficient atrength to overrule Prevident Ethet's choice, which is said to be another year of Dahlen, but the said to be another year of Dahlen's in the National Lesgue. Game with Clarendon Eleven Tomorrow Afternoon.

The National Athletic Club, which meets the Clarendon eleven tomorrow aftermoon at National Park, First and Mitreets Northeast, will present a strong line-up, and Manager Gaugza's boys expect to come out of the game victors by a good score.

The Clarendon eleven has been practicing hard for this contest and will put a heavy team on the field. The game will not up to the present and will put a heavy team on the field. The game will not up to the first and the present of the first and the present of the Piedmonts will hook up with the Tanglewoods. Manager Russo, of the Piedmonts, had his team working out jast night at the Haymarket, and the Piedmont backfield showed rare form.

What is news?

Here is a fine chance for editors, journalists, and cub reporters to make a hit with Uncle Sam, by taking their type-writers in their laps and writing Second Assistant Postmaster General Joseph Stewart what they hold to be news, Uncle Sam and Dr. Wiley have already settled Such moot questions as "What is whinkey?" "When is beer?" "Why is Boose?" and the Treasury Department, innee the enactment of the new tariff law is wrestling with a question which frames up something like this: "When Goes an egg aigrette?" (Answer-When it is not worn on a hat at the tristomis-house.)

But now the Postofice Department is about to enumiate Will Irwin and Colliera and determine finely and authoritatively—What is news? Throughout the United States newspaper reporters, editors, and near-reporters, to say nothing of journalists, magnative writers, and publiciate, magnative writers, and publiciate, him proceedings of the decision. And Mr. Stewart, the only holdover of the assistant Postmaster General, has taken his foot in his hand and started out to find the newwer.

Mr. Stewart has to know. Secause his bureau of the Postoffice Department has becreed that periodicals which do not con-ain a substantial amount of new mat-er, shall be forwarded as second class mail matter to certain distributing points by fast freight instead of by regular mail

"The question to be answered then is "What is news!" The definition I give seems to fit the case," said Mr. Stewart and it would seem easy enough to decide whether the matter contained in the periodicals whose publishers are protesting is vitiated by delay incident to ship-

Motion Picture News A Daily Feature

There is a great deal of interesting de-tail work connected with the "running" of a successful motion picture theater. Appropriate and satisfying films must be selected day by day or a week ahead, the proper billing of the attraction, the attention to the comfort of patrons, and a lot of other little mutters: and as con-gential a class of business men as you can find anywhere are the motion picture ex-hibitors as a whole.

Exchange managers of the local film Exchange are in keen but good-natured exchanges are in keen but good-natured competition with one shother for every bit of business to be had. The Washington Film Exchange, marketing the Universal preduct, and Warner's Features, Inc., handling Warner's Features exchainvely, report an excellent business in the interstate territory controlled from their offices here. So it is with the Mutual and General Film companies.
